TRIPS & OUTINGS

Lunch at Poky Dot

Wednesday, April 10

Depart 11:00 AM

Inside the whimsically painted walls of the Poky Dot lies an era past. The long standing "Poky Dot" was owned and operated by the Delligatti family in a time of togetherness until 1952 when the drive-thru barbeque and hotdog stand was purchased by Patsy Bilotta. Take a look around, take another; the Poky Dot has an eye-catching array of nostalgia that is still necessary to serve you with the best in soda shop foods and drinks. Order a thick homemade milkshake and find yourself listening to the whirl of an original blender made especially for shakes back when shakes were the only way to top off a juicy burger.

Travel Time: 40 minutes each way Cost: $7 plus your lunch
