Flight 93 National Memorial with Lunch

Wednesday, May 4

Depart 10:30 AM

On Tuesday morning, September 11, 2001, the U.S. came under attack when four commercial airliners were hijacked and used to strike targets on the ground. Nearly 3,000 people tragically lost their lives. The Memorial Plaza marks the edge of the crash site, which is the final resting place of the passengers and crew of Flight 93. The Memorial Plaza is made of various different elements. The plaza is designed to be self-guided. Orientation panels explain the basics of the plaza and interpretive panels provide a general overview of the story. Lunch (on your own) will be enjoyed at an area restaurant.
